

Angelynn Eleanor "Lynnie" Dahlsten, 72, of Ericson, Nebraska died July 20, 2015 at the CHI Health St. Francis Medical Center surrounded by her family.

Lynnie's wishes were to be cremated with a gathering of family and friends to be announced at a later date.

Lynnie was born July 11, 1943 in Burwell, Nebraska to Peter and Effie (Cook) Dahlsten. She graduated from Ericson High School in 1961.

Lynnie lived in Arizona and worked as a receptionist in the construction industry and at the Humane Society while raising her two children. In 2009 Lynnie moved with her significant other, Tim Held back to Ericson. It was her dream to come back home to family homestead.

She loved her horses, Diamond and Wings and her dog Suzie. She was an artist and enjoyed making banana bread to give to people in return for kind gestures. She was a member of the Ericson United Methodist Church.

Lynnie is survived by her significant other, Tim Held of Ericson. A son, Link Konizeski of Kaysville, Utah. Her siblings, Donnie and Heather Dahlsten of Ericson, Nebraska, Broc and Jan Dahlsten of Ericson, Nebraska, Mark and Glenda Dahlsten of Eugene, Oregon and Bebe Dahlsten of Ericson, Nebraska.

Lynnie was preceded in death by her parents, a daughter, Tara Harris, a sister, Caroline Dahlsten and a brother Oakie Dahlsten.

Hitchcock Funeral Home in Burwell, Nebraska is assisting the family. Memorials are suggested to the Ericson United Methodist Church.
