

Alice Yvonne Tracy, 78, of Taylor, Nebraska died April 1, 2016 at the Valley View Senior Village in Ord, Nebraska.

Funeral service will be 10:30 a.m. Tuesday at the United Methodist Church in Burwell, Nebraska. Burial will be in Moulton Cemetery. Pastor Dennis Davenport will officiate. Visitation will be from 5 – 7 p.m. Monday at Hitchcock Funeral Home in Burwell. Memorials are suggested to the Taylor VFW Auxiliary.

Alice was born September 8, 1937 in Taylor, Nebraska to Albert and Ida (Lewis) Coleman. They lived in Almeria where she went to grade school and then moved into Taylor. Alice graduated from Taylor High School in 1954.

On June 13, 1954 Alice married W. W. "Bill" Rhoades. To this union four children were born and they were later divorced.

Alice drove the Taylor School bus for thirty-five years. She was active in the community belonging to various ladies Clubs, the VFW Auxiliary, Historical Society, a past town board member and the NRA. She enjoyed people and being involved in life. Like playing cards, music, her chickens, driving, hunting, fishing and her grand and great-grandchildren. She is also one of the Taylor Village people.

Alice is survived by four children; Jeanne and Curtis Dunbar of Milburn, Nebraska, Leonard and Carla Rhoades of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, Julie Mellman of Taylor, Nebraska and Janice and Stan Moreno of Grand Island, Nebraska. Eight grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren and two brothers, Elton and Audrey Coleman of North Platte, Nebraska and Dick and Joan Coleman of Arizona.

Alice was preceded in death by her parents and two brothers, Rex and Chet Coleman.