

Paige Maxine Mead was born April 5, 1966 at the Burwell Hospital to Jerald Eugene and Kathaleen Marie Svoboda Mead.

She grew up on the ranch north of Burwell. She attended District 70 elementary school and graduated from Burwell Jr. Sr. High School in 1984.

Paige was a 4-H member for 10 years, where she took a variety of projects including, sewing, cooking, photography and judging.

Paige attended the University of Nebraska for one year, then attended forestry school in Ely, Minnesota. She worked for the US Forestry Service one summer in South Dakota. She was employed at a trucking firm in St. Paul, Minnesota printing company in Minneapolis.

Paige married Dan Measner on January 1, 1994 at Stacy, Minnesota. At this time, she became mother to Kindra and Brittany.

Paige, Dan and girls moved to the ranch in August 1995 where she made her home until her death.

Paige was baptized and became a member of the First Christian Church in 1982. She was active in the ladies' circle. Paige was also a member of the State and National Association for Family and Community Education, where she held county, state and national offices. Paige devoted many hours teaching 4-Her's her quilting skills.

Paige wore many hats. She helped her parents with ranch work, she was a Region 26 dispatcher, worked at Burwell Floral, operated a machine quilting business with her mother and became a county commissioner when her father died and she was appointed to finish his term.

As commissioner she served on several state and county advisory boards. Paige enjoyed quilting, reading, photography, her fish pond, traveling and going on cruises with Dan.

Paige is survived by her loving husband Dan, daughters, Kindra and Thomas Heim, Brittany and CW McCutchen, grandchildren, Madalyn, Kinley and Blake Heim and Calvin Measner and Titan McCutchen. Her mother Kathaleen, sister Kay and husband Joel Vos, aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, and many many friends.

She was preceded in death by her father Jerry, her Svoboda and Mead grandparents and an uncle and aunt Irene Van Winkle and cousin Teresa Svoboda Wilson.

A memorial service will be 10:30 a.m. Monday, December 11, 2017 at the First Christian Church in Burwell. Pastor Rolly Salts and Pastor JB Sikes will officiate. Memorials are suggested to 4 The Cure or Friends of the Garfield County Library. Hitchcock Funeral Home in Burwell, Nebraska is in charge of arrangements.