

Edith Louise Frederick, 89, of Burwell, Nebraska died April 1, 2019 at the Community Memorial Health Center in Burwell.

Funeral services will be 10:00 a.m. Thursday, April 4, 2019 at Hitchcock Funeral Home in Burwell. Pastor Dennis Davenport will officiate. Memorials are suggested to the Taylor Library.

Louise was born August 2, 1929 in Garfield County to Mary and William (Atkins) Frederick. She attended grade school in Garfield and Loup county. She attended Loup County High School graduating in 1947 and later was a teacher for Loup County Schools beginning after graduation for approximately six years. She then relocated to Beatrice with her father and sister and taught for Gage County District from 1958 until 1987.

She received a bachelors and masters degree from the University of Nebraska.

She was a member of the Unitarian Church, Beatrice area retired personnel, Federated Women's Club and the Beatrice Art Guild.

She was a very talented artist and displayed paintings in several Beatrice facilities and sold paintings at art shows.

She also was an animal lover and volunteered her time at the Beatrice Humane Society. Also, during retirement, she enjoyed volunteering at the Beatrice Library.

Louise is survived by nieces and their husbands, Vicki (Bill) Shottenkirk and Lyn (Charlie) Nelson. Great nephews and nieces, Russell Shottenkirk, Jacqueline Caldwell, Andrew Nelson, Heather Nelson, Jalyn Johnston and Jalissa Caldwell.

Louise was preceded in death by her parents, sisters, Mildred and Doris and a brother and sister-in-law, Russell and Betty Frederick. A nephew Gary Frederick and a niece Beck Jo Frederick.